A NEW DEVELOPMENT

GLASGOW STEDFAST ASSOCIATION

There has been, for some years in Glasgow, consideration to establishing an informal forum for ex-members of The Boys' Brigade in the form of a "Stedfast Association", but for a variety of reasons it has not materialised.

A wide group of local Associations operate throughout the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland at Battalion and District level and I am sure they must be puzzled that Glasgow - The City of The Brigade's birth - does not have an Association.

The general aims of a Stedfast Association are:

To further the aims and object of The Boys' Brigade, through a spirit of friendship among past and present members, sharing information on the present work at home and overseas, in addition to promoting the continuing effective work of the organisation to the general public.

Local Associations are self motivating and the schedule of meetings, governance and nature of programme varies widely, in meeting the requirements of the membership. It is essentially a meeting point for ex-members who wish to retain contact and maintain a supportive interest in The Boys' Brigade of the present.

At an exploratory meeting on 25 November 2008, attended by interested ex-members, it was enthusiastically and unanimously agreed to establish an association here in Glasgow.

You are now invited to apply for membership of the Association.

Please complete the attached application and send it, accompanied by a cheque for £10.00, representing the annual membership subscription, to the address shown below. Cheques should be made payable to "Glasgow Stedfast Association".
